ABOUT MEMBERSHIP

Croydon Chamber of Commerce & Industry (CCCI) is a key local business support organisation and focuses all of its energy on delivering opportunities across its network. CCCI is a local branch of London Chamber of Commerce and Industry (LCCI), giving you access to a network of thousands of businesses across the capital. Membership offers a diverse schedule of networking events and business services to help you grow and develop. Our membership is corporate, which means that everyone employed within your company can use our services.

WHAT'S INCLUDED IN YOUR MEMBERSHIP

Events

CCCI gives its members access to:

- An extensive programme of networking events based in Croydon to help you make new connections. Networking at these events gives you access to a wide range of decision makers and influencers in your area
  - The Grapevine Network – a free networking opportunity held ten times a year, attracting up to 80 delegates from a wide range of sectors. Build new connections and develop business relationships in an informal environment
  - The Executive Club Lunches – featuring key speakers from the world of business and offering the perfect opportunity to network and entertain clients
  - Social Events – from wine tasting to gourmet Italian food nights, our evening social events facilitate business networking in a relaxed and enjoyable way
  - One of a Kind Networking – a facilitated networking event where only one representative from any given industry sector is present
- A selection of free London Chamber of Commerce and Industry networking events, to help you broaden your professional network across the capital
- Great discounts to exclusive events run by LCCI and its partners. Events range from high-profile business briefings with expert speakers to social networking events that help facilitate connections
