EXPORT 2 EMIRATES

Explore the Opportunities for your Business in the United Arab Emirates

Date: Thursday 2 July 2009, 3.30pm - 7.30pm
At: London Chamber of Commerce and Industry,
33 Queen Street, London EC4

Have you considered exploring the potential in Abu Dhabi and the lesser-known Emirates? Are you currently operating in Dubai or thinking of doing business in this region? Would you like to find out more about the opportunities and challenges in this market and how the Emirates are withstanding the global economic downturn?

If the answer is 'yes' then join us at our seminar 'Export 2 Emirates' to discover more...

Why the UAE?

- UK exports to the Emirates total £3.7 billion making this the biggest market in the Middle East region for the UK
- It has one of the world's highest GNP's per head and despite the current global downturn is still growing
- The UAE boasts opportunities for British businesses in a host of sectors; from energy to travel, construction to financial services, transport to education and healthcare to tourism
- Business continues to boom in Abu Dhabi despite the global economic downturn providing major opportunities for British businesses. Abu Dhabi has 10% of global oil reserves and 5% of global gas reserves giving it a positive long term economic outlook
- Dubai, the second largest Emirate, still remains a vital commercial centre in the UAE. For over 40 years, Dubai has enjoyed positive trade relations with the City of London and despite the current economic climate of uncertainty it still remains the trading hub of the Middle East.

With a population of 3.48 million, a vast land mass of 83,600 Sq Km, an impressive portfolio of natural resources, a high standard of living, a growing and diversifying business sector and being one of the most liberal countries in the Gulf, the UAE hosts an array of opportunities not to be overlooked.
