OUR SPEAKERS

MARK HOBAN MP
Shadow Minister for the City

Mark was elected as MP for Fareham in 2001 and was appointed Shadow Financial Secretary to Treasury and Shadow Minister for the City in 2005. Before entering politics he was a Chartered Accountant with PricewaterhouseCoopers.

ANTHONY BROWNE
Policy Director to the Mayor

Anthony has been the Mayor's adviser on policy and economic development since 2008. He was previously Director of leading think-tank Policy Exchange and spent fifteen years as a journalist, including spells with the BBC, The Observer and The Times.

STUART FRASER
Chair of Policy & Resources, City of London

Stuart has been a Common Councilman of the City of London since 1993 and has previously served as Chair of the Planning Committee (1997-2000) and Deputy Chair of Policy and Resources (2003-08). He is currently a director of Brewin Dolphin Securities, the UK's largest independent quoted stockbroker responsible for the management of Private Client, Charitable and Trust investment portfolios and is Chairman of the Group's Asset Allocation Committee. He is an Associate of the CFA and Research and a Fellow of the Securities and Investment Institute.

SIMON WALKER
Chief Executive, BVCA

Simon Walker is Chief Executive of the BVCA – The British Private Equity & Venture Capital Association. Between 2003 and 2007 he worked at Reuters as director of corporate communications. Before joining Reuters, he was communications secretary to HM The Queen at Buckingham Palace and was previously director of corporate affairs at British Airways. He was a special adviser in the prime minister's Policy Unit at 10 Downing Street under John Major.

IAIN ANDERSON
Director and Chief Corporate Counsel, Cicero Consulting

Iain leads the agency's corporate communications practice and has over 18 years' experience in politics, public affairs campaigning and financial services journalism. He has advised numerous organisations, including financial institutions, trade and regulatory bodies, NGOs and political parties in the UK and US and is a regular contributor on financial services issues to broadcast media and the financial press. Iain was recently ranked in the top quartile of the Total Politics Top 100 Lobbyists in Britain.

WHY SHOULD I ATTEND?

This panel event will:

- Bring together some of the most influential figures concerned with the governance of the City
- Examine what a Conservative government could mean for the Square Mile and how a Cameron premiership in Whitehall will interact with a Johnson administration at City Hall
- Seek to identify the economic and regulatory challenges that businesses in the Square Mile would like to see prioritised and addressed by an incoming government
- Provide senior executives, business leaders and public policy professionals from across the Square Mile with an invaluable opportunity to quiz those individuals who will be setting the agenda for the City's future
